

Press Release

Hong Kong Life Awarded as “Distinguished Family-Friendly Employer”

19 June 2014 - Hong Kong Life Insurance Limited (“Hong Kong Life”) always emphasizes the family-friendly concept and hopes to enhance employees’ spirit, sense of belonging and productivity through human resources policies. Hong Kong Life was honored to receive “Distinguished Family-Friendly Employer” and "Special Mention" Awards, which recognized its efforts put towards family-friendly policies. A total of 1,814 companies and organizations enrolled this year. Hong Kong Life received the awards due to the outstanding achievements in the implementation of family-friendly practices and policies.

“Family-Friendly Employers Award Scheme” Award Presentation Ceremony was held at Kowloonbay International Trade & Exhibition Centre on 19 June. Chief Secretary for Administration Carrie Lam was invited as officiating guest. Hong Kong Life Head of Human Resources and Operation Administration Queenie Chan attended the ceremony as representative of Hong Kong Life and received the awards from Family Council Chairman Daniel Shek. Companies being awarded twice were given the newly added “Special Mention” Awards. Hong Kong Life was also one of the companies receiving “Special Mention” Award.

Hong Kong Life Head of Human Resources and Operation Administration Queenie Chan said, “Hong Kong Life is honored to be recognized as “Distinguished Family-Friendly Employer””. We will keep on updating our human resources policies to cater employees’ needs and benefits. We also care about the physical and mental health of our employees and try our best to make them happy during work in order to enhance efficiency. To help employees relieving their pressure and fulfilling their potential, we held Chinese painting courses and invited tutors to teach Chinese painting skills, which brought a positive effect towards both the company and employees.”

As a socially responsible company, Hong Kong Life put much effort into implementing social responsibility and employee care. It received “Caring Company”

Logo from The Hong Kong Council of Social Service for nine consecutive years and “Hong Kong Awards for Environmental Excellence - Wastewi$e Label” for five consecutive years reaching “Class of Excellence” for four times. Also, it received “The 3rd Hong Kong Outstanding Corporate Citizenship Merit Award (Enterprise)” from Hong Kong Productivity Council and Committee on the Promotion of Civic Education for commending community services.

Hong Kong Life Head of Human Resources and Operation Administration Queenie Chan received the “Distinguished Family-Friendly Employer” Award from Family Council Chairman Daniel.

Hong Kong Life Chief Marketing Officer Kennex Chan (right) and Head of Human Resources and Operation Administration Queenie Chan received “Distinguished Family-Friendly Employer” and “Special Mention” Awards with pleasure.