

Press Release

Hong Kong Life “Hong Kong Outstanding Corporate Citizenship Merit Award” (Enterprise Category)

5 February 2013 - Hong Kong Life Insurance Limited (“Hong Kong Life”) received “The 3rd Hong Kong Outstanding Corporate Citizenship Merit Award” (Enterprise Category) commending its efforts towards corporate social responsibility and achievement. In long run, Hong Kong Life hopes to be a leading corporate facilitating company growth and social sustainable development.

“The 3rd HK Outstanding Corporate Citizenship Award” Presentation Ceremony was held at Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre, Wan Chai on 30 January. Chief Secretary for Administration Carrie Lam, Hong Kong Productivity Council Chairman Chen Cheng Jen and Research, Committee on the Promotion of Civic Education Development and Community Participation Sub-committee Melissa Pang were invited as officiating guests. Hong Kong Life Chairman cum Wing Lung Insurance Company Limited General Manager James Chan, Hong Kong Life General Manager Raymond Chang and Chief Marketing Officer Kennex Chan attended the ceremony.

Hong Kong Life Chief Marketing Officer Kennex Chan said, “Hong Kong Life puts a lot of effort into achieving our team spirit of ““Try Your Best to Accomplish the Utmost”” and we have received ““Caring Company Logo”” for seven consecutive years. We are honored to receive ““The 3rd Hong Kong Outstanding Corporate Citizenship Merit Award”” (Enterprise Category) this time. Hong Kong Life never stops encouraging employees of company and shareholders to take part in charity event and deliver love message to the society. We believe that apart from contributing the society, employees will understand more about team work spirit, which brings a positive effect to company. Recently, we launch ““Paid Volunteer Leave”” to motivate employees to join volunteer work in their spare time for caring the people in need and building a positive corporate image.”

To further implement social responsibility effectively, Hong Kong Life holds and sponsors corporate promotion activities with charity purpose annually, such as “Hong Kong Life • Hong Kong Heart” encouraging citizens to share touching stories they had experienced or someone they appreciated much whom they wished to give a big thanks and “Para Relay” race in triathlon race for the disabled to fulfill their potential and enhance self-confidence.

As a caring corporate, caring employee is the key value. Because of its policies and practices in this area, Hong Kong Life received “Distinguished Family-Friendly Employer” from Family Council and “International WorkLife Balance Award” from the Italian government. In environmental aspect, Hong Kong Life has executed various environmental friendly practices and received “Hong Kong Awards for Environmental Excellence - Wastewi$e Label” for four consecutive years reaching “Class of Excellence” for three times. Hong Kong Life will continue to implement more practices for fulfilling corporate social responsibility.

Hong Kong Life Chairman cum Wing Lung Insurance General Manager James Chan (center), Hong Kong Life General Manager Raymond Chang (left) and Chief Marketing Officer Kennex Chan were honored to receive the award.

Hong Kong Life Chairman cum Wing Lung Insurance General Manager James Chan (left) received “The 3rd Hong Kong Outstanding Corporate Citizenship Merit Award” from Bank of China (Hong Kong) Assistant Chief Executive.