

Press Release

Hong Kong Life “With Love, With Nick” Seminar Recaps

4 July 2011 - Hong Kong Life Insurance Limited (“Hong Kong Life”) always understands the needs of Hong Kong people. To celebrate its 10th Anniversary, Hong Kong Life invited a distinguished Australian motivational speaker Nick Vujicic who was born without limbs, to share his lifestory.

“With Love, With Nick” Seminar was successfully held on 4 July in Kowloonbay International Trade and Exhibition Centre. It was a seminar filled with love and inspiration in which all participants had enjoyed a lot the face-to-face interaction with Nick. Nick had delivered his sharing in a humorous and interactive way. He reminded the audience wholeheartedly that there were ups and downs in life, everyone had the possibility of encountering adversity.

Now at 28, Nick had obtained a double Bachelor’s degree, majoring in Accounting and Financial Planning at 26 years old with his positive attitude towards struggles. With his passion for life, he successfully transformed a life without limbs to a life without limits. He could participate in different kind of sports. Nick had created a beautiful life. He also delivered speech in 43 countries or areas in Asia, Africa and America sharing his lifestory and encouraging a million of audience to face difficulties positively.

Apart from Nick's sharing, some special performances were also staged. A spectacular opening was brought by the “Energetic Eagles Drum Corps” of Tung Wah Group of Hospitals. 23 members had performed a sonorous and rhythmic music in a high momentum, and everyone’s attention was easily captured by this performing unit. This Drum Corps was formed by a group of passionate members with different limitations. Some of them were visually impaired, mental handicapped, deaf, physically impaired and autism. And, the key members were two blind elderly aged 88.

Another special performer was Lee Hin, a young and outstanding pianist. Lee had lost his eyesight due to congenital Retinitis Pigmentosa, yet this obstacle did not hinder his enthusiasm for music and piano learning.

Hong Kong Life Chief Marketing Officer Kennex Chan said, “Hong Kong Life was honored to invite Nick to share his lifestory. He inspired us a lot in this stressful city. We hope to deliver hope through this Seminar.”

Nick's message was inspirational and touching.

Hong Kong Life Director and Wing Hang Bank Limited Assistant General Manager William Ng (left) presented a special gift to Nick.

Hong Kong Life Director and Wing Hang Bank Assistant General Manager William Ng (3rd from left) took group photo with Nick (centre) and other performing parties.